Health and Safety Policy

General Statement of Policy

Kingston
Carton

Established 1917

The organisation recognises its statutory duty under the Health and Safety at Work Act 1974.

Therefore, this policy, is So Far As is Reasonably Practicable (SFARP), to ensure that the organisation provides and maintains safe and healthy working conditions, safe equipment and systems of work for all our employees, and to provide as such information, instruction, training and supervision as they need for this purpose. We also will ensure SFARP there are no risks to health in the use, handling storage and transportation of articles and substances.

We also accept our responsibility for the health, safety and welfare of other people including visitors and contractors who may be affected by the organisation's undertaking.

The allocation of duties for safety matters and the particular arrangements, which we will make to implement this policy, are set out in the companies Health & Safety Manual.

Health and Safety is seen as a key company issue and will be pro-actively managed as a line management function.

The policy will be kept up to date, particularly as the business changes in nature and size. To ensure this, the policy and the way in which it has operated will be reviewed every year.
